

Margaret Searl, 497

Wife to the late Samuel Searl,

Famous for Relieving and Curing

DEAFNESS;

Depending on any External Obstruction

Of the Organ of the EAR;

Who had Practised

This ART above Thirty Eight Years past, and Communicated the Secret to me only, who Practis'd it with him, in his Life time, for many Years, after the same Way and Method.

Still living in Pye-Corner, over-against the Golden Ball, by West-Smithfield, London; (though it is Reported that I was Dead, by some Pretenders to deceive the World) where I am ready, upon any Occasion of that Nature, to serve such as apply themselves to me: Being the Survivor of my Father Edmund Searl, and late Husband Samuel Searl.

Whereas several Servants of my Father Edmund Searl, have put out Bills for Curing of DEAFNESS. This is to Certifie, That neither my Father, or Husband, ever Instructed, or Communicated this Secret to any of their Servants, or any Apprentice whatsoever.

Printed April 10. 1706.